

Gentlemen:

There is too much evidence about the interference using this technique. Say "no" before too much gets invested and it will be too hard to reverse. Public Utilities are not known for maintaining their system when they interfere with others. The public power system is too large too maintain.